Training and Facilitation

MNA offers a portfolio of facilitation and training capabilities consisting of tailored exercise, events and curriculum products designed to help our clients improve their operational effectiveness

Exercises and Facilitated Events

MNA designs and conducts scenario driven and table-top exercises to enable training, mission planning, and mission rehearsal. Exercises test command, control and communications; assess the efficacy of processes; and enable the identification of capability and resource gaps.

MNA facilitated working groups and seminars foster intraorganizational and interorganizational dialogue, collaboration, and problem solving. We employ a variety of facilitation techniques to enable participants to understand complex problems, identify root causes, and develop effective solutions.

Tailored Training Products

MNA personnel design training solutions choosing from a wide variety of approaches, methods, and techniques that offer the best training experience for our customer. Our approach stresses the importance of adult learning principles and best practices into curriculum to ensure training content is relevant and engaging.

Our Valued Clients

Sample Client Engagements

- Federal Highway Administration (FHWA)
Facilitated 13 Tribal Consultation Workshops for stakeholders consisting of tribal leaders and representatives from federally recognized tribes and tribal regions across the United States.
- Federal Protective Service (FPS)
Facilitated a 3-day, scenario-driven exercise with participants from multiple FPS regions and government agencies that included the FBI, ATF, DEA, GSA, OFO, CBP, Joint Task Force- North, El Paso PD, Texas Dept of Public Safety and Mexican Federal Police.
- El Paso Intelligence Center (EPIC) Seminars
Facilitated a variety of seminars, each with over 60+ participants in large and small group discussions, to leverage the collective expertise of seminar participants to inform intelligence products focused on drugs, drug trafficking and Transnational Criminal Organizations (TCO) modus operandi.
